JAMESTOWN RACING BEGINS

MEETING OPENED WITH BRILLIANT AND EN THUSIASTIC GATHERING.

Society People of Surrounding Country Flock to Pretty Race Course on Hampton Roads-Ragman Wins Feature.

Norfolk, Va., April 1.—After three weeks of plotous weather the temperature took a sudden drop this afternoon and wraps and overcoats were in demand at the opening of the eastern racing season at the pretty course of the Jamestown Jockey Club on Hampton Roads. Notwithstanding wretched car service and the chilly weather, fully 3,000 people were present. The crowd was full of enthusiasm and it was amply demonstrated that Benning has found a worthy successor. The best people of Norfolk, Newport News and Old Point Comfort were among those present and the beautiful Jamestown boulevard deading to the track was allive with automobiles and carriages.

Ragman had little difficulty in winning the program's feature race. He made all his own pace and won well in hand. Fort Carrol, a good-looking colf by-Griffon, lived up to his morning work by capturing the second race. Joe Jones' Rash, an arrival from Jacksonville, graduated from the maiden ranks by taking the closing dash after being impeded slightly at the start.

T. E. Mannix shipped German Silver and Jolly here from New York, and jockey McCahey came along to do the riding.

WITH THE EASTERN TRAINERS. Recent work-outs:

WITH THE EASTERN TRAINERS.

New York. April 1.—Some moves calculated to bring their horses to the point where they can be set down for real fast work was accomplished by several trainers at Belmont Park yesterday. Ed Nash worked King Cobali a half in 492. The work was well done. King Cobali was punch fired for a couple of splints during the winter. He is going soundly now and trainer Nash is sanguine he will train on satisfactorily. Lady Rosalie and Ben Lomond, by Handspring and Ben Strome, respectively, were cased up three-eighths in 392. Miss Dooley went three-eighths in 43.

Rocky O'Brien galloped three-quarters in 1:222. Kimball Patterson, his trainer, has spared no pains in giving the Meddler three-vear-old an Al preparation, and the result is highly pleasing. Winning Widow and Golden Agnes worked a half in better finan 51. Tender Bloom covered an equal distance at the same notch. Dublin Minstrel, a son of Stalwart, went a half in 492, handly.

Stephen Lawler breezed Chickasaw and Queens half in 56. Queens is a smoothly-turned, well-tempered two-year-old bay filly by Matchless, out of Astragal.

The jumpers Lillie Hoy and Gild galloped three quarters in 1:25. Henley went a mile in 2:00.

pered two-year-old bay filly by Matchless, out of Astragal.

The jumpers Lillie Hoy and Gild galloped three quarters in 1:25. Henley went a mile in 2:00.

Trainer Thomas J. Healey did not give any of Richard T. Wilson, Jr.'s horses fast work, but next week he intends to sharpen up the ones which are to race at Aqueduct. Olambala and Candleberry galloped a mile slower than a two-minute gait. Benucoup and Agnier fellowed at the same clip. Altamaha, Agawan, Cherish, Cuttyhunk, Dorchester, Fort Worth, Seni-Quaver, Gunstick, Abound, Limpet and Mr. Jingle went a half in 53?

Rufus is going better this spring than ever before, His middle tendon filled up while he was racing last summer and caused his retirement.

GOSSIP FROM THE BLUE GRASS REGION.

Lexington, Ky., April 1.—J. C. Rogers' Kentucky Derby candidate, John Furlong, worked a mile at the Kentucky Association course this morning in 1.462, the first half in 50½. Will McDaniel today took charge of the stable of Superintendary Large Derby

1.446, the first half in 503. Will McDaniel today took charge of the stable of Superintendent James P. Ross of the Kentucky Association track.

J. W. May has turned out the two-year-old colt by Islington—Bainty. He is at Beaumont Farm Mr. May sold the colt by Inflexible—Orbona to J. J. Flannigan at Louisville.

Captain Jim Williams will ship his string from Louisville to the local track next week. Governor Gray, the two-year-old half-brother to Waldo, is the star of the stable and he is said to be a speed marvel.

E. T. Graves' Skyte, a sister to Toboggan, foaled a brown filly by Scintillant II. last night. Skyte will be mated with Hermis.

Derby Candidates, Topland and The Fad, to Get Some Relaxation From Their Training.

Relaxation From Their Training.

Louisville, Ky., April 1.—Kentucky Derby candidates and other horses in training at Churchill Downs and Douglas Park did little work yesterday much faster than a two-minute clip. Trainer Gass intended to work Fighting Bob, but owing to the heavy dust that covers the course, he postponed the work-out of the son of Knight of Ellerslie until Saturday, by which time he hopes that rain will settle the track. He let Maltbie work a half in 52. A number of the horses in training at Churchili Downs are coughing, and some of the trainers think the heavy dust has caused the throat trouble at present so prevalent there. Trainer C. C. Van Meter is one of the horsemen who is preparing to take time by the forelock, and yesterday he decided to give his horses a week's lay-off. He thinks his two Derby candidates, Topland and The Fad, are far enough advanced in their preparation to rest for a week, as he will then have fully thirty-five days to fit them for the big race.

Trainer Brooks is hustling along one horse in the Schulte string. This is Gliding Belle, which came back yesterday after a mile work-out of Monday and circled the course in 1:50.

John Ferriss has worked wonders in the appearance of Ed Alvey's $7,500 four-year-old, Friend Harry, since the son of Orlando joined the Tennessee trainer's stable at Churchill Bowns. The half-brother to Pink Coat seems to improve every day and is rounding back to the form he showed when Alvey purchased him. Ferriss had a little trouble with Friend Harry's Feels, but the soreness has yielded to treatment.

The trainer of Olambala is sweet on a two-year-old he himself owns by King Hanover, out of Lily of the West, and thinks he has in him another Prince Ahmed. He says E. S. Gardner is still in stud activity, but is growing old. Gardner is now engaged in the grain elevator and general store business at Gallatin. Tenn. He has raced no horses since he sold Charlie Eastman and Charlie Gilbert. Gardner owned Himyar when the sire of the mighty Domine died.

owned Himyar when the sire of the mighty Domino died.

Trainer Pete Coyne said yesterday that he had heard from Bashford Manor Farm that Sir Huon, George J. Long's Kentucky Derby winner of 1906, was recently put on the scales and weighed 1,280 pounds. There are five yearlings by this good son of Falsetto at Bashford Manor and this season the horse will have a nice lot of foals, as he was mated with some good marcs in 1909.

Lee Christy has engaged stable room at Douglas Park for the Tennessee stable of W. A. Hughes, now in training at the Fletcher farm in that state. The horses of the dead banker went under the hammer recently, but the lot the colored trainer will bring here were not sold. In the collection are Mrs. Sewall, Star Venus and La Toupee. The latter is eligible to start in the Kentucky Oaks.

SOMETHING OF THE LATE JAMES GALWAY.

New York, April 1.—James Galway, the veteran turfman, who died at his home here yesterday, was for twenty-five years owner of the Preakness Farm, near Paterson, N. J. He was seventy-five years old, and death resulted from heart failure and complications. He was a steward of the Jockey Ciub and for many years was actively engaged in breeding and racing thoroughbreds.

Born in a village on the border line of Scotland and England, Mr. Galway came to New York when he was seventeen years old. Before becoming interested in racing he acquired a fortune in the whole-sale grocery business. He took up road driving as a recreation about forty years ago and later acquired a string of running and trotting horses. He was the owner of the noted gelding, St. Julien, and later became interested in the running turf. In the fore his appointment had served for many years as a volunteer fireman.

When the Board of Control, and later the Jockey Club, came into existence, Mr. Galway was a valuable member of both. In June, 1806, he was appointed a steward of the Jockey Club to fill a vacancy caused by the death of Colonel W, P. Thompson. His racing colors—black, yellow sleeves and red cap—were seen on local race courses, for more than thirty-five years. One of the most noted horses which Mr. Galway owned was Linden, which broke down while nearing home in the Suburban Handicap several years ago when he was far in the lead.

PENSACOLA'S PATRONAGE IMPROVES.

Pensacola. Fla., April 1.—There was a decided improvement in the attendance today. Betting was also of increased volume. Prices were, however, tight and the books won. The encouraging conditions of the last two days makes it feasible for the management to go with the olans originally arranged. There was some talk of reducing the purses, but the horsemen's protest is bearing fruit for the present. The association has decided positively to continue operating the books. Eugene Austin and Wills Varennelli, the layers who came here to operate, departed this morning. The former went to Jamestown, where he will book.

Tom Dolan's defeat by Bobby Cook and Lucullus caused the judges to seek an explanation from his rider. James Carroll. The rider's explanation was accepted.

Victories by Caltha, Bobby Cook, Lucky Mate and Mary Candlemas were in the nature of form reversals over previous starts. Chenault scored his second win of the meeting when he landed the purse in the opener.

NOTES OF THE TURF.

The Airlie Stable's Mazuma has reached Sheeps ead Bay from Jacksonville.

W. K. Vanderbilt's Five o'Clock won the Prix Na varre at Saint Ouen, France, yesterday. H. B. Dur yea's Ben Ban was second in the race. Fifteen of the horses of H. P. Whitney that will be trained by Thomas Welsh this season have reached Gravesend from Brookdale Farm.

of the Juarez Jockey Club.

In an announcement concerning the Castleton stallions, owned by James R. Keene, Major F. A. Daingerfield, the manager of the farm, says: "Kingston, twenty-six years old, has been retired to spend the remaining days of his years in oftum cum dignitate."

Former jockey Willie Martin has arrived at New York from Jacksonville with the two-year-olds, Frank Navin and Blue Mass, purchased by F. J. Nolan at the Chinn sale. Martin will prepare the jumpers, Malacca and Banyah, for racing at Aqueduct.

W. G. Wilson is preparing four jumpers on Long Island for the Pimlico meeting. Wilson's string is composed of the veteran feneers, Expansionist and Andrew Summers and the novices, Teddy Bear and Ta-Nun-Da. He has been hard at it at Sheepshead Bay for some weeks now and his horses are pre-pared for serious work.

MILLER BILL STILL PRIVATE MEASURE.

Possibility That It Will Not Be Reached During Present Session of Canadian Parliament.

Montreal, Que., April 1.—The thoroughbred mare, Leota, by Voter, dropped a chestnut filly foal today by the National Breeding Bureau stallion, Oraculum. This is the ninth bureau foal of the season on the island of Montreal. The others are by Rosemount, Ostrich, Valjean, Masterman and Sea Horse II. All the foals are fine specimens and all are from thoroughbred mares. The half-bred crop will not arrive until May and June, when about 600 foals are expected, all sired by National Breeding Bureau stallions.

Acrobat has arrived safely from Jacksonville.

oughbred mares. The half-bred crop will not arrive until May and June, when about 600 foals are expected, all sired by National Breeding Bureau stallons.

Acrobat has arrived safely from Jacksonvillé, accompanied by his mascot, a mottled goat. This horse is a grandson of St. Simon, out of a Sir Modred mare, and is a valuable acquisition to the horse-breeding industry of Canada. Acrobat was also a good race horse, and has a mile record of 1:373, made over the Los Angeles track. Either Acrobat or Zipango will be placed by the bureau on the farm of Sir Frederick Borden, minister of militia and defense.

Zipango, donated by H. G. Bedwell, is a strikingly handsome stallion now, and has gained 203 pounds in weight since bis retirement from the tracks. He is by Admonition, a son of Hanover, out of Miss C., by Florist.

Acrobat was donated to the bureau by Richard F. Carman, of New York, who a year and a half ago gave Rosemount, now the thoroughbred champion of Canada, to the bureau. Rosemount was bred at the Nursery Stnd and is by Hastings, out of Lady Rosemary, by St. Blaise.

The National Breeding Bureau has secured by donation from Allen Boswell of Quebec the stallion Blue Coat, by Een Strome, out of Blue Jacket, by Whistle Jacket.

The bureau takes the stand that the Miller bill, if passed, will stop American donations of thorough-tred sires, and as there are over 27,000 Canadian farmers interested in the work and 1,400 applications for stallions, this attifude of the big horse-breeding concern has bad a steadying effect on the House of Commons. It has placed a condition in opposition to a theory and has arrayed a heap of facts against a mound of nonsense and ignorance. It points out that England is 153,000 horses short of cavalry molifization strength, and this, resolved into dollars and cents, means $20,000,000 for Canadian farmers if they are allowed and enabled to produce the crop.

All the prominent racing clubs in Canada, have, within the past week, declared officially that they will close if the Miller bill

SIR MARTIN AND MINORU MAY MEET.

Although flat racing never ceases in England between the opening of the Lincoln meeting and the close at Manchester, in November, the meetings following the Liverpool Spring and up to the Epsom Spring meeting are of comparatively slight importance. With the coming of the Epsom Spring meeting comes also a signal increase in interest and the decision of events of high rank follow in rapid and interesting succession. Racing at Epsom begins April 19 with the long-established Great Metropolitan and City and Suburban Handicap as the main features. The Great Metropolitan is at two miles and a quarter and has no American horses nominated, but Sir Martin and Minoru are in the City and Suburban, with the former set to carry 125 pounds and the latter 123. There is a chance that both will go to the post in this famous race, in which Foxhall met one of his few defeats as a three-year-old. If they do there may be some light thrown on the vexed question of whether Sir Martin would have won the Derby last year but for his unlucky fall at Tattenbam Corner.

DADDY GIP A LUCKY WINNER.

San Francisco, Cal. April 1.—Daddy Gip gained a lucky victory in the Cordelia Handicap at Oakland today over some of the best three-year-olds in local training. He beat the barrier and was never headed, but just lasted to beat the fast-coming Chester Krum by a nose.

The sport was marked by close finishes. In the last race the first five horses were separated by narrow margins. Sweet Basil got the decision from W. V. Brumby, with Directello third. Salall won the two-year-old race from Ban Ann in a hot finish. Miss Officious was a beavily-supported favorite in the long-distance race, but J. R. Laughrey won easily.

Bucolic has been sold to the Raisin City Stable and C. M. Polk has bought Smiley Metzner.

Thomas H. Williams has turned over Big Chief to George W. Berry, and the horse has been sent to Napa Stock Farm to enter the stud, Mr. Williams having concluded that his recent breakdown precludes the idea of again racing the horse.

SARATOGA SPECIAL SUBSCRIPTIONS.

New York, April 1.—For the Saratoga Special two subscriptions have been taken out by James R. Keene and John E. Madden. Other subscribers who have taken one each include John Sanford, R. T. Wilson, Jr., H. L. Shaw, W. S. Fanshawe, C. L. Harrison, J. B. Haggin, James Buler, H. P. Witney, F. R. Hitchcock, August Belmont, Harry LaMontagne, M. L. Schwartz, R. N. Smith, F. A. Forsythe, Edgar Madden, Captain E B. Cassatt, the Beverwyck Stable and the Newcastle Stable.

The list of twenty-two is the best since 1903, when the race was closed with twenty-nine. W. C. Whitney was then the best subscriber, taking out three. That same year H. M. Zlegler took two, John E. Madden two and James R. Keene a like number.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 1.—A meeting of the stewards of the Southern Jockey Club will be held on Monday, when the license granted to the Pensacola track will probably be revoked. The officials here learned that Bickers is really the manager of the plant and that the meeting is not being conducted along the lines laid down by the Southern Jockey Club, While the Southern Jockey Club has no ontiaw rule, it has been announced that horsemen who participate in the racing at Pensacola after Tuesday next will be barred at the other two Florida tracks.

PENSACOLA DATES MAY BE REVOKED.

DERBY TO BE RUN TODAY

FIELD OF SEVEN NAMED TO START IN MON-CREIF PARK EVENT.

Fauntleroy Rules Favorite at 9 to 5, with Chelsea Stable Entry Second Choice-Favorites Make Clean Sweep.

Jacksonville, Fla., April 1.—Favorites swept the board at Moncreif Park this afternoon. The victory of the sixth, First Premium, came through the disqualification of Sticker, which fouled not only First Premium, but Ten Paces as well. As a matter of fact the latter was the worse sufferer of the two, Ganz being sharply cut off and knocked back at the eighth post. The judges took prompt action on Red's complaint and placed Sticker second.

Bets on the opening race were called off just as the bugle blew calling the horses to the post. A deputy sheriff appeared in the paddock and served an attachment on the mare Snow Ball, and there was nothing left for the officials to do but to scratch Snow Ball and order new betting.

The first four winners made runaway affairs of their races, but Allanfearn and First Premium came from behind and finished stoutly. J. Wilson and S. Davis each rode two winners.

The big attraction tomorrow will be the American Derby, in which a field of seven good colts are named to go to the post. Pulka is penalized for his numerous victories here and is asked to shoulder 123 pounds. He will be ridden by Ganz.

James McLaughin's good colt. Fauntleroy, with Jimmy Reid in the saddle, will be the betting choice. The Chelsea Stáble will send two to the post—Lothario and Martinez. J. Wilson will have the mount on the former, while S. Davis will be on Martinez. Sager will be ridden by Dave Nicol and Polls by V. Powers. If Boca Grande goes, which looks doubtful, J. Deavenport will have the mount. Fauntleroy will be favorite at 9 to 5 and the Chelsea Stable entry second choice at 12 to 5. Odds quoted tonight against the others are as follows: Sager, 4 to 1, Pulka and Polls by William Barrett, arrived this morning from Cuba and will purchase about twenty-five racers for shipment to Havana to take part in the races being given by the Havana sporting Cub. This association gives mattnee races every Sunday at the Almandares track. The natives are beginning to take kindly to the sport, which means that in a fe

TRANCE IN PROMISING CONDITION.

New York, April 1.—Patched-up cripples have won many races on the American turf because of patient handling and expert treatment. Just now horsemen at Gravesend are watching the efforts of George M. Odom to bring the four-year-old filly, Trance, by Ben Brush—Fair Vision, bnck to the races after a year on the shelf. Odom is confident of success and as a reason for his faith in Trance he points with pride to her apparent soundness after the daily gallop at the Dwyer track. Trance, as a two-year-old, showed remarkable form, and was rated not far behind James R. Keene's Maskette in point of class. She won more than a dozen races for Odom under all sorts of conditions, taking the measure of the now famous Fitz Herbert among others. Odom refused $25,000 for the daughter of Ben Brush, a castoff of the Keene stable, and, when last season dawned at Pimilco, the young turfman believed that Trance would be one of the reigning sensations.

castoff of the Keene stable, and, when last season dawned at Pimilco, the young turfman believed that Trance would be one of the reigning sensations. But, much to Odom's dismay, the filly, after a fast work-out over the Baltimore track one morning, pulled up with a pair of bowed tendons. Odom saw ata a glance that her racing days were temporarily at an end and he promptly shipped her to the farm to be turned out.

"If she comes back sound next spring," he said, "I will train her and she'll win some of the big races too." So Trance, after being fired and blistered, spent all of last year in retirement, though she was never forgotten for a moment by her owner. Early in February Odom looked Trance over critically and decided that she would stand training. He had her shipped to Gravesend and three weeks ago he let her have a walk around the track. Then came trotting and cantering, Trance pulling up sound after each day's outing. Odom was delighted therefore and so were his friends, who are looking for the filly's complete recovery. At the track yesterday Trance was allowed to gallop a half in about 55, and when she went to her stall she was as sound as a brass bell. This was a crucial test, according to Odom, who saw the filly cool out, and 'said:

"I think she will be the same as ever. And maybe she won't make some of the sprinters fty."

ANOTHER RACE TRACK FOR MARYLAND.

Baltimore, Md., April 1.—Senator Biddison yesterday introduced in the legislature a bill to incorporate the Maryland Racing Association of Baltimore and Anne Arundel Counties. The incorporators named are: James M. Douglas, Frank Hancock, William T. Dietrich, William P. Cummings and Elmer J. Cook, The association is granted large powers under the terms of the pronosed articles of incorporation, practically the only limitation being that its meetings shall not last for more than eighteen days in Baltimore County, in the aggregate.

William T. Dietrich, one of the incorporators, said that a meeting of the stockholders would be held within a few days and that a site for a new race course would be selected. Four or five places are under consideration said be—Halethorpe, Baltimore County, and a site in Harford County being among them.

CANADIAN OWNERS IN A DILEMMA

Toronto, Ont., April 1.—On account of the uncertainty of the racing situation here Canadian owners are arranging to ship their horses away, and others whose horses are now abroad will not return them to Toronto, as has been the custom in the spring. Some twenty horses now in training at Woodbine and on the sandy roads of East Toronto will be shipped in a few days to Baltimore. The horses of R. J. Mackenzie's Kirkfield Stable, which are now racing in California, will be sent to New York instead of coming back to Toronto. Trainer Ed Whyte, who has them in charge, has made application for accommodation for twelve horses at the Queens County meeting, which opens at Aqueduct this month.

†Disqualified for foul and placed second. Time, 24, 484, 1:1404, 1:4736, Track fast.

Winner—Ch. h., by Gorman—Premium (trained by H. McCoulskey).

Went to post at 4:34. At post 1 minute. Start good. Won driving: second and third the same. STICKER went to the front at once and raced JOHN A. MUNRO into defeat, but interfered with TEN PACES at the furlong post, then carried FIRST PREMIUM out and was disqualified. FIRST PREMIUM came around the leaders when entering the homestretch and finished fast and gamely. TEN PACES ran well, but was in close quarters all the way and sharply cut off in the stretch, then cut across to the inside and was best and should have won. The winner was entered for $500; no bid.

Scratched—88709°Console, 109; 88694 Dele Strome, 107; 88257 Wild Fire, 95.
